*You are the bows from which your children
as living arrows are sent forth.*

The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.

Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness;

*For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so
He loves also the bow that is stable.*

Custodian Collects Honors From High School Students

Suffield

By JOANNE BALL

SUFFIELD — Although he lives in Chicopee, Mass., Stanley "Stas" J. Lachtars considers himself an honorary Suffield citizen.

Lachtars, 57, has been one of the custodians at Suffield High School off and on for eight years. During that time, he has been named an honorary member of the school's Vocational Agricultural Center and the school band.

Most recently, the Class of 1979 named him its honorary class adviser.

Lachtars attributes these honors not to himself, but to the "good bunch of people and kids here."

Lachtars started working on the high school custodial staff in 1949. He stayed there three years until he was reassigned to McAlister Middle School, he said.

Lachtars said he didn't want to leave the high school, but he was needed at McAlister.

He stayed at the middle school for "not quite one year," he said and after that landed a job with the athletic department at American International College in Springfield.

The job in Springfield was good, he said, but when Assistant School Superintendent Howard Brown offered him a position back at the high school, Lachtars jumped at the opportunity.

He stayed at the college in Springfield for 50 weeks, he said, and returned to Suffield High School in 1973.

This time he became head custodian for the school. "It's on account of the kids and the people that I'm here today," Lachtars said.

Lachtars said he doesn't see his job as just dealing with custodial duties.

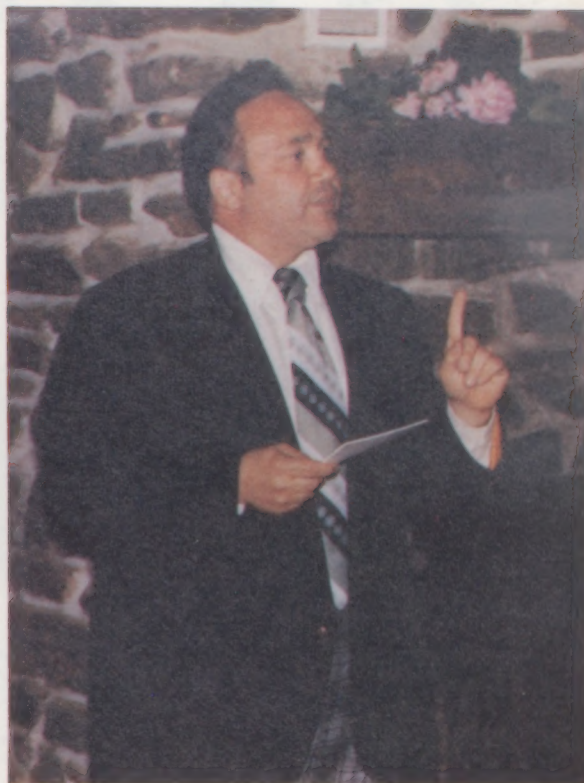

He said he has helped with programs at the Vo-Ag Center and accompanied the band to New York this past spring.

"I help out in every way I can," he said. He applied that motto to his work with this year's junior class. Lachtars assisted the class with dances, fund-raising events and other activities.

As a result, the class showed its appreciation last month in the form of a plaque, he said.

The plaque joins a trophy Lachtars received from the high school staff in 1973 just before he was transferred to the middle school and another plaque he got from the Vo-Ag Center.

"It's really good to work here," he said. "I really enjoy my job."

CLASS

Now, just before graduation, we sit back and think about the past four years. We weren't going to be labeled as the meek, little freshmen everyone expected us to be. Letting everyone know about our spirit, we clambered into our class jackets. After completing this traditional freshman project, we decided to start new trends. Doughnut Sales caught on quickly. We earned everyone's admiration by becoming the first class to traditionalize annual class trips. "Maybe those little freshmen know what they're doing!" was the repeated observation.

We breezed into our Sophomore year ready to take on the Ring Sale. The only problem we had with the rings was getting them off swollen fingers. (So what's a few hours in the nurse's office?) By initiating the first Sophomore candy sale, we once again proved that we were a prosperous class. Then the school really thought we had bitten off more than we could chew when we became determined to beat the Seniors in the Pep Rally. (They were champs three years in a row). True, we didn't win but we came so close — only two points away. From the rally, we proceeded to enjoy the good, clean fun of Slave Day.

HISTORY

Upperclassmen selling magazines gave us the incentive to jump (face first) into the Candy Sale. The wealthiest class of SHS was increasing its profits. (But how were we going to clear up our faces in time for the Junior Prom?) When the Candy Sale was over and we had beaten the other classes in the amount of money we brought in, our next project became perfectly clear. (As well as our faces). We knew we had to beat the other classes in the Pep Rally. With our mood set for winning, we stormed in and showed the rest of the school true spirit and STOMPED our competitors! We swept into the magical night of our Junior Prom promising to remember it "Always and Forever." This was the perfect ending for our Junior year.

Sailing into Senior year, we quickly launched our own Magazine Sale which would enable us to complete many cherished projects. We drifted into our one last special dance, the Senior Snow Ball, soared on through varsity sports, Pep Rallies, concerts, plays, and musicals, ultimately hitting our first target. GRADUATION!

CLASS

Rui Araujo leaves his pictures of the "girl from Ipanema" and a care package with 100% Brazilian coffee.

Drew Ashley leaves Mr. "P" to carry on his endless task of recruiting, and to Lynda a locker full of little fuzzy guys, and the tradition to Bean drop.

Jay Atkin leaves some regrets outweighed by good times for bigger and better things.

Michelle Autorino leaves the memory and all her nicknames behind.

Paula Bagley leaves all her worthwhile possessions to her teachers.

Tammy Basdekis leaves with memories of good times and with all her friends.

Mary Bauchiero leaves all the good times we've had to Mr. C, and with Janine Dobson leaves her duché cakes to anyone who deserves them.

Kathy Bednaz leaves her sick humor and jokes to anyone who wants the trouble.

Steve Bedndaz leaves knowing there will never be a partying class like '79.

Cheryl Beresford leaves first chair in the clarinet section to a special friend who deserves it most. Thanks for making all our problems bearable. Stay cool — olé.

Lisa Bertolini leaves decking down the slide with Lynn and Jill, with more rides to come.

Kim Bertrand leaves the L.C.C.C. cheer and our bells to Miss Mazza and Mr. Baker.

Jane Biggerstaff leaves her "trusty" V.W.

Susan Bromson leaves her gym credits.

Lori Burke leaves working with Mr. "C" with lots of love and thanks, to Lisa a small hamburger, and many thanks to Miss Napier for her long hours of dedication and patience, and Mr. K a sweetface.

Ray Burnham leaves his cousin all his Vo-Ag experiences.

Rich Burwood leaves by the skin of his teeth.

Dan Cannon leaves two shorebirds, one wooden ship, and an ecology towel to Mr. Thomas and a new steel sign to Mr. Cain.

Louise Cannon leaves in search of "Mr. Right."

Robin Carlson leaves Suffield High in a hurry.

Pat Carroll leaves Ann Murphy in charge of monitoring the "serious hall."

Steven Case leaves all the fish in Massachusetts to Mr. Walat and all the mud in Connecticut to Mr. Jensen.

Diane Caswell leaves as the last of the Caswell girls with a warning to look out for brother Billy.

Tom Chase leaves all the trouble of towel sales etc. to the next crop of baseball players and Coach Thomas.

Liz Cheverier leaves her laughter to anyone who is deprived of such a gift.

Linda Christian leaves for Peoria with Geoy and therefore leaves Mr. Greenleaf to find a nuttier cupcake and a Gobstopper to Karl.

Bob Clark leaves with a song in his heart, a twinkle of youth in his eye, and a mighty cry of "ello!" on his lips.

Beth Coope leaves the smallest pair of basketball shorts, and the job of shooting to Tammy Mills.

Dave Cummings leaves his cage to whoever can keep it empty.

Mark Davis wills anyone to ruin a car as fast as he did his Ford Fairlane.

Marty Demers leaves Mr. Green a full thermos of coffee.

Janine Dobson leaves (along with Mary B. and Michael Stephen) taking all the memories of the fantastic times they all shared, and also leaves all her K-bongs to Mary who will need them in the future.

Tom Drakeley leaves as Susan and Burny arrive. He also leaves his Frizbee and tennis balls to Mrs. Novak.

Jay Egan leaves Mr. Baker a discus for next year's track team.

Sandy Elcock leaves with all the good memories and good times she had at S.H.S.

Kim Engelke leaves Jimmy and Sean the turf farm, and "before-the-show" tears to Mr. "P".

Vinnie Fabrizi leaves his brother, Paul, for Mr. Sinicrope to yell at.

Carla Fahey leaves all her memories of Suffield High to her sister Lynn.

Jill Falkowski leaves Joy to wear the goggles in Chemistry, write her own notes, get her own lunch money, and survive Art's bus ride for one more year.

Nancy Ferriter leaves Larry Tavino playing the field. Good luck with everything you do, Larry.

John Fitch leaves a pair of binoculars to Mr. Sinicrope, so he can look out to the track and see if Paul is running.

Shaun Fleming leaves on a wheelie.

Jim Frazier leaves everyone in suspense on where he got his good looks, and exquisite taste for dynamic fashions and his patented jump shot.

Cindy Gagne leaves a million thanks to Pic and a sour joke to Sean and Jimmy.

Mary Gamache leaves gym to anyone who wants it.

Henry Gardocki leaves good luck to the hockey team for the 1979-1980 season.

Mary Gardocki leaves Sue Phillips all her used tennis balls and hopes her sister, Nancy, can make the bus on time.

Carolyn Gawel leaves memories of the past and good friends.

Gina Gebhart leaves the rest of the Gebhart gang to the unfortunate of Suffield High.

Ricky Gemme leaves never having to listen to a moose call again and Melanie to remember the piggery.

Jennifer George leaves her easel, her dirty paint rag, and tattered smock to anyone who might be inspired.

Lisa Gibrano leaves Kim the only size 7 uniform, to Mr. "C" thanks for the whereabouts of many wallets, and a shoe horn to Mr. Aniello.

Katie Glans leaves Oscar empty until we return.

Pam Glemboski leaves with many wonderful memories and best wishes to her brother, Stanley — in hopes that he will do well, and to Mr. Tanguay — hoping he will be able to find another music librarian who will enjoy doing the work as much as she did.

Billy Gogulski leaves Mr. Formanek six broken wrenches, five stock bolts, four broken sockets, three late passes, two bald tires, and one slightly misplaced transmission.

Mark Goodwin leaves profound mathematic genius to be shared equally by Mr. Grous and Mrs. Corcoran.

Eddy Graczewski Jr. leaves his number one spot in tractor driving to the next person who earns it in Mr. Clark's class.

Jimmy Grant leaves all the good times in Mr. Maschi's class to Diane Dugas.

Debbie Handy leaves Debbie LaDuke the dust and dirt behind homeplate, and a dress to wear to the sports banquet afterwards. May she wear it in good health.

Grace Hill leaves hoping to share more good times with Boop, Jodo, Kathy, Kimba, Pughy, Rufus, and Tracey, taking memories of Mr. Fisher's Algebra I class to give to T. Brightman, and leaves it up to David to get his own lunch money in the morning.

Katherine Horanzy leaves Mrs. Kalber with an "I do," and much happiness in high school to her sisters, Patty and Peggy.

Tom Horanzy leaves behind the hopes, ambitions, and opportunities that he failed to utilize.

Tom Hoyle leaves Eric Bennet two chocolate covered doughnuts and a gallon of hardened midnight blue enamel.

David Huntley leaves his deputy badge to Larry Tavino and an unmarked banana cream pie to Mr. Grous.

Bonita Hutchinson leaves all the good and fun memories to her best friend, Juana Prude, her smile to Mr. G., her figure to Mrs. Kraus, and all her love to Stas.

Cheryl Izyk leaves Mrs. O'Neil all her Spanish notes in hopes that maybe someone will use them, to Mr. Graft two chickens and the front half of a cow suit, and most of all to Barbara and Lisa, her partners in crime, the will to carry on where she left off.

Ricky Johnston leaves Jeff Sorrow and the Red Sox, wishing good luck to Mr. Maschi and the Freshman Basketball Team.

Eric Kampfmann leaves Bob Bauchiero short changed in Southgate, Donny Lownds a rabbit C.P.R., and Kit and Mario fogging up the rear window.

David Kasanowski leaves the rest of the balsa wood from his bridge and roof to Mr. Thompson.

Diana Keene leaves with Mare-Bear, Dob, and all the others

WILL

remembering. "It was the best of times it was the worst of times, . . . it was the season of light, it was the season of darkness, . . . it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair. . . ." — Dickens

Tracey Kinsman leaves all the times in F period math telling Jill Falkowski. "We've been here forever!" To Linda, the memories of D period and the two and a half week span, and the wish to continue the fun and laughter with Linda Pugh and Sue Martino.

Sue Kleszczewski leaves B19 and chicken soup to all her male teacher friends.

Lynne Kolvek leaves for the Pickle Barrel with Lisa and Jill.

Jill Ann Knowlton leaves still waiting for Krysia outside of New Hartford Town Hall and Mr. Grous still not being able to pronounce "KN."

Nancy Kolls leaves SHS to her brother Ray and sister Susan, and Suffield for bigger and better things.

Lyndon Krogh leaves knowing credit is never given where credit is due, and the bent no parking sign (next to the green station wagon) to Glenn Packard because, "He made me do it."

Janet Krohn leaves Mr. D. to find someone else to run in the thunder and lightning, and Miss Nappier a brown and yellow javelin with a bent tip.

Karen Kudla leaves for Bay Path Junior College.

Kathy Kulas leaves Mark Sullivan still wondering, "Was it Brian or was it me?!", and also leaves for a party with Kimba, Boop, Jody, Linda, Ruth, Gracie, and Lori!!!

Mary Kusmik leaves a little love, laughter, pleasure, and pain but especially part of her life, filled with memories.

Steven LaCross leaves his paint brush.

Brian Langh leaves taking memories of Mr. Walat's chemistry class.

Robin Long leaves with Heidi and Cindy for some more fun, all the headaches of accounting to Mrs. Smoolca, and all the memories to her sister, Sheryl.

Anne Longtin leaves with Beth, thanking all of her friends that helped her find love and friendship.

Dave Magee leaves Derek his Latin desk.

Karlene Magnuson leaves for Peoria with Cal; to Miss Mazza she leaves all the rainbows in the world, and all the peppermint patties to Peter G.

Wally Marek leaves Suffield High in high spirits with wishes for a successful future, and a fond memory of the past.

Gary Markowski leaves his toboggan to Mr. Grous.

Chris Martin leaves all his hustle and determination on the tennis court to Mr. Hartmann.

Lisa Martin leaves love to Mr. "C" and leaves Lori in Danbury with Dave.

Sue Martino leaves much love and thanks to Pic for all the great times in his class and productions, a daffodil and tickets to see the next Steve Martin concert to Linda Bryce.

Donna McBain leaves Lynda all those wet rainy soccer practices and the whole varsity team all to herself.

Kit McCarty leaves the last half of the McCarty's, Mr. Picard a solemn hymn, and Rocky at the quarry digging for touch stones.

Duane McDuffee leaves Suffield High School to all who can enjoy it.

Glenn McEwan leaves Mr. G with an empty bandana with the hopes that he may find some other "long hair" to fill it.

Leslie Melillo leaves hoping her sister, Jennifer, will find as much happiness as she did in Suffield High.

Heidi Miller leaves Terri and Liz to keep things going in the FFA, and Mr. Fuller wondering how she made it this far. But most of all she leaves with great joy.

Cindy Miskin leaves hoping Lisa Colson will too.

Cheryl Moore leaves Mr. Duni all the Chunky candy bars at John's Foodtown.

Dorothy Morganweck leaves "Mr. K" reverse gear, Mr. Gowdy with a clean desk, Mr. Grous with the thought that she'll never take Hill Street at 10 miles an hour again, The Spirit of 79 to wander the halls till it finds another class to dwell in that can use it as well as we, and the joy of the Wildcat to continue making its footprints to and from our school.

Wally Mosher leaves two tickets for the Junior Prom to Mr. Fuller, a Grandma R dirtboard to Tom Hoyle, and all his uneaten lunches to David Huntley.

Jeff Nielson leaves his sins to all his teachers.

Peter Osowiecki leaves with the memories of all the fun and friends he had here.

Glenn Packard leaves Mr. Baker smiling as usual.

Diane Stewart leaves the good times of her memories.

David Sullivan leaves Bruce to Linda Fricke.

Bob Sweatland leaves knowing that his BAJA Truck has never been beaten.

Chris Sych leaves her brother, Richard, her old beat-up Plymouth in hopes that he will be able to take it to school, and to Mr. Gowdy and Mr. Katulka another reliable person to take their morning walks for them.

Patsy Thompson leaves the shot put to Napps with the 40 foot potential.

Sue Victoria leaves her frizz to Mr. Baker, a special shirt to Mr. Grous, and much love to Mr. "P".

Lori Waterman leaves "Mr. K" to find another gazebo mouth.

Joann Wiezalis leaves all her late passes to her A period teachers.

Heidi Wilson leaves behind Mike, Chris, Kurt, Skip, and Barry as the last of The Wilsons, a special thanks to Rob, and an unmarked dollar bill to Mr. Fuller.

Andy Woodcock leaves the legend of Elvis Costello to be carried on by Dick Bob.

Scott Woodruff leaves the teachers his brothers and sisters to come.

Toni Youdis leaves with all the memories she has of the past four years — It's been fun.

CLASS

In the beginning, the one called HUNTLEY, but now known as "Big Brother," casually strolls into the 1992 Clone Trade Fair escorting his adoring wife JENNIFER GEORGE on his right arm. He seats himself in the front row as the show begins. The announcers are New World communications experts JERRY ROBINSON and KIT McCARTY.

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to the WORLD CLONE TRADE FAIR. Tonight you will see two hundred of the best clone models available on the market.

We would also like to take this opportunity to introduce our leader, Big Brother!" (followed by dutiful applause.)

WALLY MOSHER, a leftover radical, excavation engineer, from '79 stares with contempt from the back row.

"I remember real leaders. Remember President Nixon and his wife, Pat? Remember that silly scandal? He was a real leader!" thinks the radical, now turned reactionary.

The announcers begin again.

"Here are the latest models from our business administration line. THE DREW ASHLEY, THE JAY ATKIN, THE JIMMY FRAZIER models, the ever popular LYNNE KOLVEK, WALLY MAREK, LYNN ROWELL, CHRIS SYCH, SKIP EDMONDS, and finally THE SCOTT WOODRUFF are all regarded as the better clones of the '92 business world."

MOSHER wails, "Those are business leaders? I remember Hugh Hefner! Boy, could he run a business!"

Again the announcers drone on.

"Now from our accounting lines, we have THE TOMMY DRAKELEY, THE KATHY HORANZY, THE DONNA McBAIN, THE LINDA CHRISTIAN, and THE KIM BERTRAND models. Also, from our secretarial line, there is a wide variety of models: THE PAULA BAGLEY, THE TAMMY BASDEKIS, THE SUE BROMSON, THE JODY BRUNTON, THE ROBIN CARLSON, THE LIZ CHEVERIER, THE SANDY ELCOCK, and THE TONI YODIS. These are being supervised by our executive model THE HEIDI WILSON."

"These are secretaries?", MOSHER ponders. "We had Elizabeth Ray! Boy, could she take a letter!"

"And from medicine: THE RUI ARAUJO in the doctor section, THE NANCY FERRITER from nursing, THE JANINE DOBSON and THE LORI WATERMAN in the medical technician line, while from respiratory therapy for '92, we have THE CARLA FAHEY, and medical assistants, THE KAREN KUDLA, and THE GINA GEBHART.

Big Brother leans over and whispers to his wife, "I like what I have seen so far."

"Those are doctors? I remember doctors like Dr. Timothy Leary! Could he fill a prescription!" states the radical.

"From pediatrics, THE MARY BAUCHIERO, THE PATSY THOMPSON, and THE MARY GARDOCKI," says the announcer.

"I'd rather have Dr. Spock," recalls MOSHER.

"The physical therapist line for '92 features THE SUE KLESCZEWSKI. The psychiatrists line yields THE RUTH BOSTROM, and THE LINDA PUGH models. THE SHEILA SCULLY model is leading the psychologist line. To complete our medical offerings, we have models from the pharmaceutical section. Here is THE PAM GLEMBOSKI, THE JILL KNOWLTON, THE DAVE PADREVITA, and THE ANDY SEGER."

Big Brother waves across the hall to KEN PARENT, an independently wealthy man who races radio-controlled cars.

"Our legal line provides THE DOROTHY MORGANWECK, DIANA KEENE, and BOB CLARK models. The BETH COOPE is available from the Criminal Justice line while THE SHARON PHILLIPS and THE LISA BERTOLINI stand out in our court reporter line."

"Whatever happened to Jaworski?" mumbles the radical.

"Our political line features THE CAROLE PELLETIER, and from the pilot line, THE JAY EGAN, THE GARY MARKOWSKI, and THE GREG WILLS are all set to fly our space shuttles."

"Space Shuttles!" thinks MOSHER. "I remember planes and the way they used to make the windows in our house shake. Those were the days!"

"The engineering line is also tops for '92 with electrical engineering clones TOM HORANZY and MARC ROHRBACHER and chemical engineers, GEORGE ROSSETTI and ERIC KAMPFMANN. We also offer a biometrics specialist, THE MIKE STEPHEN and a geophysicist model, THE STEVE CASE.

"We would like to introduce our vocational clones from the farming area: THE GLENN BOGLISCH in plant management; THE MARY KUSMIK-HEIDI MILLER partnership, THE JUDY PIECHERT horse trainer model, the all new BILLY ROEBELEN in wild life management, and THE JEFF NEILSON model from the veterinary center. This is THE STEVE BEDNAZ in landscaping, and here is a lovely set: THE VINNIE FABRIZI and WALTER SOULE carpentry duo (an almost obsolete profession.), and the latest JANET KROHN model from soil sciences.

"Let's here it for good old DDT!" MOSHER longs to scream.

"From the auto area! THE JIMMY GRANT, THE KEVIN PHELPS, and THE BOB SWEATLAND, are all fine-cloned mechanics. Here's the popular TOM HOYLE from our restoration line for fall '92 along with THE RICKY GEMME welding clone."

"The teacher selection includes THE KATY GLANS model and THE SUE VICTORIA in special education, while THE JILL FALKOWSKI excels in the math line as does the skilled DUANE McDUFFEE model in Industrial Arts."

"Our audio-visual entertainment line features THE CINDY GAGNE and THE SUE MARTINO."

"We used to have message movies," sighs the radical. "Who can forget the great lessons we learned from Animal House? Those were the days."

"There is also THE JAY McLAUGHLIN and THE ANDY WOODCOCK in the pop-vocal department," says the announcer.

"We had great groups like "KISS", thinks MOSHER.

Bit Brother seems exceptionally pleased with these models.

"Among the musician and artist clones are THE TOM CHASE, THE CHERYL BERESFORD, THE DIANE CASWELL, and THE STEVEN LACROSS models, and our fashion designers line includes THE GRACE HILL and THE BONITA HUTCHINSON."

"Fashion indeed", MOSHER reminisces. "I remember big earrings, beads, and hair curlers. I also remember some women's fashions."

"Our cosmetology line," resumes the announcers, "includes THE LISA GIBRIANO and THE MARY GAMACHE. And don't forget our hairdresser models THE LESLIE MELILLO and THE ROBIN LONG."

"I think we washed for that," MOSHER says, "baths wasn't it? I forgot those."

The announcers continue, "Our interior designers line for '92 has THE LOUISA CANON and THE CAROL MATYIA. And now for our miscellaneous line for any occasion: THE JOHN FITCH used-car salesman clone, THE MARC DAVIS disc jockey model, THE MARTY DEMERS hockey referee model, and THE CHRIS MARTIN tennis player line are teamed up with THE DEBBY HANDY Major League Baseball style for '92. THE MARK GOODWIN is our chef model. And here's a dandy, the Hegelian philosopher model, THE BRIAN LANGH. (Rather obsolete but fun as a pet.) Here are our sun-worshiper models, THE KATHY KULAS and THE JOHN MNICH.

"That concludes The World Clone Trade Fair for '92. We hope you have enjoyed yourself and thank you for attending."

Big Brother smiles warmly and orders one of each model for his private collection.

MOSHER can't tolerate this compliance any longer and cries, "Be radical! Do it!"

"He is immediately seized by detective KATHY BEDNAZ and officers GLENN PACKARD, PETE OSOWIECKI, and LORI BURKE and dragged (under protest, of course) from the hall.

CLASS FAVORITES

In the fall, most of us could be found on the sidelines rooting for our favorite soccer team, sporting blue uniforms. Winter found us dreaming of watching our favorite Whalers at the sturdy (??) Hartford Civic Center Arena or avidly following the exploits of our favorite Boston Celtics. Amid accumulated snow and ice in McDonald's parking lot, we pulled three-sixties in our favorite Camaros while voices of Linda Ronstadt and Jackson Browne blared out through closed windows. The melting snows brought us into Mr. Duni's, eating pizza and discussing symbolism. Summer rolled in as we added weekdays to our "social" schedule. The Boston Red Sox were in "full swing" and it was time for graduation with its happy endings and all-night get-togethers as we said good-bye to SHS.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

SOCCER CHAMPIONS — CLASS M

Suffield's state win has Sachems' coach feeling down and out

— AWARD BANQUET

By DON GAUDREAU
Staff Writer

MANCHESTER — Mike Zotta stood on the sidelines of Manchester High's Memorial Field — head bowed, emotionally drained and defeated for the second time this year.

"If anyone had said to me before this season that we wouldn't score in a game this year I'd have said they were crazy," said the RHAM High coach, who'd just seen his Sachems shutout for the first time all year, 1-0, by Suffield in the Class M state soccer championship game.

If there was any team capable of shutting down RHAM's high-powered offense, which scored 73 goals this season, it was the Wildcats. In the four tournament wins it took Suffield to claim the Class M championship, its first since 1960 and third in the school's history, the Wildcats did not allow a single goal.

"It was our best game of the year and we knew it would have to be for us to beat them," twelfth-year Suffield Coach George Galiatsos said. "The defense was superb and I think we dominated play for most of the game."

Suffield senior Dave Sullivan scored the only goal of the match with 15:50 left in the first half from 35-yards away on the right side after running down a lead pass from Glenn Packard. It was Sullivan's second goal of the season and it goes without saying that it was his biggest. There was some doubt as to whether Sullivan intended the boot to be a shot or a cross but it was a solid connection which twisted in the wind and left RHAM goalie Todd Krewson watching helplessly as the ball caught the upper left corner.

"I honestly don't know if David intended it to be a shot or a pass," Galiatsos said.

"It was just a wind-blown kick," Zotta said.

"I had no idea how far away I was," Sullivan said. "But I saw their keeper coming out so I just kicked it toward the goal."

It went in — period, 1-0.

Suffield, which won the North Central Connecticut Conference, entered the tournament ranked fourth. There's no doubt the Wildcats reached Saturday's finale because of their defense which was anchored by three unheralded fullbacks, Dan Cannon, Ken Parent and Walter Soule. Behind that solid full-backing corps patrolled a curly-haired junior who always wears a rugby shirt, named Larry Tavino.

Tavino is more selective about who or what crosses his doorstep than a bouncer at Studio 54 and he proved it in the final three minutes of Saturday's title game.

With 2:24 left in the match the Sachems were awarded corner kick from the left side. Mike Ryan lifted it 10 yards out from the middle of the Wildcat goal where Tom Gardiner, a 6-foot-2, 165-pound scorer extraordinaire (28 goals), redirected the ball with a header that was rejected by a lunging effort by Tavino. On the spot to drill the rebound was Scott Cahill, who's scored 20 goals for RHAM this season, but a diving effort by Tavino speared his bid wide. Tavino's test was not over yet, however, as moments later Ryan was setting up another corner kick from the right side. This time Ryan lifted the ball higher and further from the Suffield net, but on a gambling play, Tavino rushed from the net and fisted the ball towards midfield.

The game ended, appropriately, when RHAM's last-ditch attempt, a high floater from just inside midfield, was cradled in Tavino's arms as the final horn sounded.

"What can I say about Larry," Galiatsos said. "He was just super."

Zotta, whose team shared the Class M crown with Valley Regional last year and finishes this campaign with a sparkling 16-2-1 record, offered no excuses.

"We had our chances early. We just couldn't put the ball in the net."

Zotta was correct. Early in the game RHAM dominated, for perhaps the first 15 minutes. The Sachems had good scoring opportunities but they fired directly at Tavino, who's about as sure-handed as they come between the posts. But the majority of the final 55 minutes was played, surprisingly, in the Sachem end.

RHAM's real strength, however, is its front line of Ryan, Gardner and Cahill and those three won't beat you when they're standing at midfield watching the action take place in front of their own net.

Suffield, which finishes 16-1-3, was the better mid-field team on this day, largely because of Packard and Chris Noe. The Wildcats were also far more aggressive, winning the ball far more often than losing it, in the close-checking game.

"You could almost sense it," Galiatsos would remark after the game. "We seemed hungrier, like we wanted it more. I could really tell the kids felt they could win this game."

Zotta, and make no mistake about it — the Sachems are an excellent soccer team, was bitterly disappointed by the loss. From the time RHAM got off the bus there was the unmistakable impression that they weren't there hoping to catch the bridal bouquet but expected to leave with the wedding ring.

"Suffield won," Zotta said. "But I still think the two best players out there were in RHAM uniforms."

Presumably Zotta was speaking of Gardner and Cahill, but many of the 1200 in attendance and a crowded press box which included UConn soccer Coach Joe Morrone seemed rather impressed with the play of Packard and the Suffield goalie in the rugby shirt.

"Congratulations Coach," Wildcat senior Lyndon Krogh, who scored all but one of Suffield's tournament goals said to Zotta. "You've got a great team and you'll probably be here next year."

To which Zotta replied in a determined tone, "Oh, we'll be here."

Gardiner and Cahill are juniors and RHAM would have to be better than an even-money favorite to be in next year's final.

Krogh and 10 other Suffield soccer players are seniors who won't be back next year. But in June when they graduate, they'll pick up a diploma and in their back pocket will be a Class M state soccer championship.

Score By Periods:

RHAM	0	0-0
Suffield	1	0-1

Goals: 5—Sullivan.

Guaranteed challenge:

If you're a young person looking for some real challenge, now's the time to look into the Army. From law enforcement to medicine, from cooks to combat arms, the Army has more challenging opportunities to offer than anyone.

Over $400 a month to start

Army pay is better than ever. And with meals, lodging and medical and dental care provided, you'll be surprised how far that pay will go.

Skill-training courses

Ever wonder where to get that "experience necessary" the classified ads always ask for? A good place is the Army. With hundreds of training courses, the Army can teach you skills you'll be glad to have later on.

Educational opportunities

You can take classes on post, or at nearby colleges and universities, with the Army paying up to 75% of tuition for approved courses taken on your own time (and under the Veterans' Educational Assistance Program, you can build an $8,100 education fund in just 3 years).

Travel opportunities

Joining the Army can mean a chance to work and live in Europe, Alaska, Hawaii, Korea, the Canal Zone, or almost anywhere in the continental U.S.

Join now, go later

You can do just that — join now and, if you qualify, you can report up to 365 days later — with the Army's special Delayed Entry Program. A terrific option for high school seniors and others with unfinished business ahead of them.

Serve yourself, Serve your Country

To find out which programs are open, and to have the best chance of getting the one you want, call us now.

*HIS WORK NOW
DONE, THE ARCHER
WATCHES THE ARROW SOAR

*HE SMILES
PROUDLY SINCE
THE FLIGHT
HAS BEEN SWIFT AND SURE.*

NOW THE ARROW WILL SEEK ITS OWN TARGETS

*You are the bows from which your children
as living arrows are sent forth.*

*The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might
that His arrows may go swift and far.*

Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness;

*For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so
He loves also the bow that is stable.*
